Housing Ministers Receive Courtesy Call from PSA President

Port of Spain – Earlier today, Housing Minister Dr. the Honourable David Lee and Minister in the Ministry, Senator the Honourable Phillip Alexander, received a Courtesy Call from Ms. Felisha Thomas, President of the Public Service Association (PSA), at the Ministry's South Quay, Port of Spain office.

Ms. Thomas was warmly received by the Honourable Ministers, the Permanent Secretary (Ag.), and the Deputy Permanent Secretary (Ag.). She extended her congratulations to the Ministers on their recent appointments. The meeting featured engaging and productive discussions on future collaboration, the workers' agenda, and advancing housing development while supporting the broader progress of Trinidad and Tobago.

The Ministry remains committed to fulfilling its mandate of providing accessible and affordable housing solutions, fostering sustainable communities, and contributing to the overall national development of Trinidad and Tobago.
